

I oppose the attempt of the consumer bankers association trying to side track Indiana's no call list. It is in my best interest to not have to answer all there unwanted calls.